Presenting Twelve Dancing Princesses by Charles DeWald

A ruler worries for the future of the kingdom, given that the royal princesses are unable to stay awake long enough to learn how to be leaders. The royal subjects are ordered to be unhappy -until or unless the mystery surrounding the princesses can be solved. Will the princesses ever learn to be royal leaders? Will the people of the kingdom ever be truly happy? This spellbinding tale will keep you guessing.

All students will need to attend auditions on Tuesday, January 22. Please mention potential conflicts (e.g. dance) when you sign up. Your student will receive their rehearsal schedules on January 23. Elementary students will ride bus 67 to the HS.
